

NISD COUNSELING PRESENTS

NARRATIVE LIVE

A Community Learning Experience

2022 WORKSHOP SERIES

WORKING WITH TRAUMA THROUGH A NARRATIVE LENS

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 2022 @ 2-5PM PT

NISD Counseling invites you to attend a half-day workshop led by Dr. Maggie Slaska, PhD, LMFT. This event will be hosted in-person in San Diego (seating is limited to 15 people) and simultaneously via zoom. Maggie will discuss the historical and emerging metaphors of trauma, how Narrative practices can be used to co-construct and re-story client narratives around trauma, and engage participants with interactive discussion and practical exercises.

This training is for licensed and pre-licensed mental health professionals, students, case managers, community workers and educators interested in supporting resilience in those affected by traumatic events.

Fees:

$110 licensed professionals, case workers, educators, etc.

$70 students and pre-licensed associates

(A limited number of scholarships are available)

Register at: EventBrite

Narrative Initiatives San Diego (NISD)
Counseling, Training & Research Center
3636 Fifth Avenue, Suite 203, San Diego, CA 92103
619-786-7184 | [events@nisd counseling.org](mailto:events@nisd counseling.org)
[www.nisd counseling.org](http://www.nisd counseling.org)

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Maggie Slaska, PhD, LMFT

Maggie works in private practice and teaches with the Counseling and Social Change Program, Dept of Women's Studies and LGBTQ+ Studies Programs at San Diego State University. She is also a Taos Institute Associate and completed her Ph.D. through at Vrije University Brussels, Belgium.

Her doctoral research examined cultural discourses about trauma and resiliency, the use of narrative therapy to co-construct stories of resiliency after relationship violence and sexual assault. She has worked in the relationship violence and sexual assault victim advocacy field and is currently focused on developing social constructionist counseling practices with the local LGBTQ+ community in San Diego.

ABOUT NISD

Narrative Initiatives San Diego (NISD) is a 501c3 non-profit organization providing affordable counseling to individuals, couples, families and groups throughout California.

We provide a rich, experiential Narrative Therapy training context for graduate students and pre-licensed counselors completing their clinical hours for licensure by California's Board of Behavioral Sciences, as well as licensed therapists wanting a Narrative home base.

Learn more @ [www.nisd counseling.org](http://www.nisd counseling.org).

NARRATIVE LIVE

A Community Learning Experience